Overview / Checklist

Criminal Records Expungement Kit

Overview of Process

A petitioner may file for the expungement of criminal charge (see checklist for qualified charges below) in the Circuit Court of the jurisdiction where the original charge was filed. Using the official petition in Section D of this packet, a petitioner may only request expungement for one charge per petition, and that charge must be specifically identified through the submission of certified documents. If the court grants the petition for expungement, each agency that maintains any record related to the expunged charge must forward all such records to ALEA. ALEA will digitally store any records received and destroy physical records. The expunged information is then sealed and separated from the official criminal history record. Please note, there are a few exceptions for accessing the official criminal history record for law enforcement purposes. Therefore, any expunged record is no longer part of a person's criminal record for public purposes.

Checklists for Expungement

Frequently Asked Questions

Criminal Records Expungement Kit

Frequently Asked Questions

What is expungement?

The removal of criminal charges from a person's criminal history record accessible for public purposes, such as an employee background check. Expungement is not applicable to a criminal conviction or any violation of the statutes, rules or regulations of the Alabama Securities Commission. Any expunged records are still available to the court or law enforcement.

Can a conviction be expunged?

No. Only charges for non-felonies or non-violent felonies under certain circumstances may be expunged. See the checklist in Section A for the specific list of charged offenses that may be expunged.

What if my official criminal history record does not show a charge for an offense that I know I have received?

Not all charges show up on a person's criminal history record for a variety of reasons. Older records were not always sent to ALEA for entry into the state's criminal history database. Some charges are not automated in which case procedures have been put in place to catch these files while being converted to electronic format. Some records have not yet been sent to ALEA and, on occasion, records may be lost or destroyed at the local level. Even if the charge does not appear on a certified criminal history record, a record may still exist in a local law enforcement agency, a prosecutor's file or a court record system. These records may still be accessible or eventually sent to ALEA for inclusion into the official record. If a petitioner knows of a record, even though it does not show up, that person should still file for the expungement to prevent these records from being sent to ALEA at a later date. If granted, the record will be officially removed from any agency for public dissemination.

Can a police department or court keep a record of an expunged charge?

Any criminal justice agency with records on an expunged charge, such as arrest records, booking or arrest photos, or references in the State Court's Information System, must be forwarded to ALEA. However, a law enforcement agency or official, district attorney or a prosecuting authority, the Alabama Department of Forensic Sciences, or the Department of Human Resources may maintain an investigative file, report, case file, or log which may include any evidence, biological evidence, photographs, exhibits, or information in documentary or electronic form. Once an order of expungement is issued, though, this information cannot be disseminated for a non-criminal justice purpose.

Who can see an expunged record?

Expunged records may not be used for any non-criminal justice purpose and may only be made available to criminal justice agencies upon acknowledgement of an investigation or other criminal matter involving the person related to the expungement.

Criminal Records Expungement Kit

Do I have to divulge that I have been charged for an offense that has been expunged?

The petitioner whose record was expunged does not have to disclose that fact on an application for employment, credit, or other type of application. However, the petitioner whose record was expunged shall have the duty to disclose the fact of the record and any matter relating thereto to any government regulatory or licensing agency, any utility and its agents and affiliates, or any bank or other financial institution. In these circumstances, the government regulatory or licensing agency, utility and its agents and affiliates, or the bank or other financial institution shall have the right to inspect the expunged records after filing notice with the court. A person applying for a position as a law enforcement or corrections officer must disclose and provide a copy of the expungement to the agency.

Will an expunged criminal charge show up on an employee background check?

Once an order of expungement is granted, that offense will no longer be part of a publically accessible record used for employee background checks.

Does an expungement apply to a non-government background check service?

An order of expungement does not necessarily apply to an unofficial 3rd party background service. However, if a petitioner provides notice to the service that an expungement has been granted, the record may no longer be intentionally disseminated by that entity.

Does an expungement restore my rights to carry a firearm?

An expungement order shall not entitle an individual to ship, transport, possess, or receive a firearm. Any person whose record of conviction is expunged may have his or her right to ship, transport, possess, or receive a firearm restored by a Certificate of Pardon with Restoration of Civil and Political Rights from the Alabama Board of Pardons and Paroles.

- (b) The petitioner shall include a certified record of arrest, disposition, or the case action summary from the appropriate agency for the court record the petitioner seeks to have expunged as well as a certified official criminal record obtained from the Alabama Criminal Justice Information Center. In addition to setting forth grounds for the court to consider, the petitioner shall specify what criminal charges from the record are to be considered, further specify the agency or department that made the arrest and any agency or department where the petitioner was booked or was incarcerated or detained pursuant to the arrest or charge sought to be expunged.

The district attorney and the victim shall have a period of 45 days to file a written objection to the granting of the petition or the district attorney shall be deemed to have waived the right to object. The district attorney shall serve the petitioner or the petitioner's counsel a copy of the written objection.

Section 15-27-4

Administrative filing fee; indigency.

- (a) In addition to any cost of court or docket fee for filing the petition in circuit court, an administrative filing fee of three hundred dollars ($300) shall be paid at the time the petition is filed and is a condition precedent to any ruling of the court pursuant to this chapter. The administrative filing fee shall not be waived by the court and shall be distributed as follows:
- (1) Seventy-five dollars ($75) to the State Judicial Administrative Fund.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a person seeking relief under this chapter may apply for indigent status by completing an Affidavit of Substantial Hardship and Order which shall be submitted with the petition. If the court finds the petitioner is indigent, the court may set forth a payment plan for the petitioner to satisfy the filing fee over a period of time, which shall be paid in full, prior to any order granting an expungement.

(c) If a petitioner seeks expungement of an arrest record and the court in the original case made a clear and unequivocal judicial finding on the record that the arrest had no foundation of probable cause, the court, in the expungement proceeding, shall waive all docket fees and court costs, except for the filing fee in subsection (a).

Section 15-27-5

Objections; hearing; ruling.

(a) If the prosecuting authority or victim files an objection to the granting of a petition under this chapter, the court having jurisdiction over the matter shall set a date for a hearing no sooner than 14 days from the filing of the objection. The court shall notify the prosecuting authority and the petitioner of the hearing date. In the discretion of the court, the court shall consider the following factors:

(b) A hearing under subsection (a) shall be conducted in a manner prescribed by the trial judge and shall include oral argument and review of relevant documentation in support of, or in objection to, the granting of the petition. The Alabama Rules of Evidence shall apply to the hearing. Leave of the court shall be obtained for the taking of witness testimony relating to any disputed fact.

(c) There is no right to the expungement of any criminal record, and any request for expungement of a criminal record may be denied at the sole discretion of the court. The court shall grant the petition if it is reasonably satisfied from the evidence that the petitioner has complied with and satisfied the requirements of this chapter. The court shall have discretion over the number of cases that may be expunged pursuant to this chapter after the first case is expunged. The ruling of the court shall be subject to certiorari review and shall not be reversed absent a showing of an abuse of discretion.

(d) If no objection to a petition is filed by the prosecuting authority or victim, the court having jurisdiction over the matter may rule on the merits of the petition without setting the matter for hearing. In such cases, the court shall grant the petition if it is reasonably satisfied from the evidence that the petitioner has complied with and satisfied the requirements of this chapter.
